Getting to Bonn

▪ By air to Bonn Central Station: from Cologne/Bonn airport (Flughafen Köln/Bonn):

The airport is well connected to the city centre by Airport-shuttle-bus SB60 leaving from Terminal 2 every twenty minutes (a single ticket is 10.60 EUR and is valid for the tram as well if you immediately continue your trip). It is also possible to rent a car or take a taxi at the airport.

The distance between airport and Central Station is around 30 km. Please check the following webpage on more information about Bonn/Cologne Airport: <http://www.koeln-bonn-airport.de/index.php>

▪ From Frankfurt airport:

Frankfurt Airport has two train stations (Deutsche Bahn): the regional train station and the long-distance train station. To get to Bonn you need to take the ICE train at the long-distance train station in Terminal 1, B Concourse, Level 0. Get off the train at Bonn/Siegburg and take STR 66 (Straßenbahn/Tram) to Bonn Central Station. Tickets are available in the regional train station or from the machines. They can be purchased using an EC debit card or a credit card.

More information on travelling with Deutsche Bahn:

- “Heussallee/Museumsmeile” stop, exit station direction “Deutsche Welle”.
- When you reach the street go straight ahead into Heussallee until you reach the UN Campus.

▪ By car:

If you come by car, use a route planner to find your way to the UN premises and to your hotel, for example maps. google.com.

▪ Coming from the North (Frankfurt/ Hannover/Ruhrgebiet):

- A3 motorway to Bonn/Siegburg intersection
- A560 motorway towards Bonn until St. Augustin junction
- A59 motorway towards Bonn-Bad Godesberg until Bonn-Ost (42) intersection
- A562 motorway, keep right until exit (Anschlussstelle) Bonn-Rheinaue
- Turn right onto Petra-Kelly-Allee towards Bonn-Rheinaue
- Turn right onto Charles-de-Gaulle-Straße
- The UN Bonn Campus is located at the end of the street on the left

- Coming from the South-West of the Rhine:
- A61 motorway until Meckenheim intersection
- A 565 motorway towards Bonn
- Poppelsdorf exit, towards Bad Godesberg (B9)
- After “Reuterbruecke”-Bridge keep right and follow the road to the right into Adenauerallee
- Take the first left into Welckerstraße
- At the 3-way intersection turn right into Karl Carstens Straße
- At the next intersection turn left into Heussallee
- The main entrance of the UN Bonn Campus is right ahead at the end of the street
- To park your car at Charles-de-Gaulle-Straße take a right into Kurt-Schumacher-Straße
- At the next intersection, continue straight ahead into Sträßchensweg
- Follow the street and at the next red light continue straight ahead into Charles-de-Gaulle-Str.

Note for Visitors: There are only few parking spots in the immediate vicinity of the UN Campus. However, if required, you can leave your car in one of the parking areas you pass along Charles-de-Gaulle-Straße.

Getting around Bonn:

It is easy to get around in Bonn as its public transportation system is well developed. You can choose between suburban trains (SBahn), subway (U-Bahn), trams and buses.

You can find out about the quickest way to get from A to B on one of two electronic itinerary planners by typing in an address or a stop:

en.swb-busundbahn.de/

www.vrsinfo.de/englisch

http://www.bahn.de/p_en/view/index.shtml

There are several ticket options for using public transport within Bonn.

- Zone K:

For getting from U-Bahn stop “Universität/ Markt” to the conference location (Stop “Heussallee”) or any other journey with four stops or less, you will need a ticket for Zone K (short distance tickets, valid for max. 4 stops). A single ticket for Zone K is 1.90 EUR, a 4-trip ticket is 7.10 EUR.

- Zone 1b:

From “Bonn Hauptbahnhof” (Central Station) to the venue and any other stop within Bonn more than 4 stops away from your station of departure you will need a ticket for Zone 1b. A single ticket for Zone 1b is 2.80 EUR. You can also buy day-tickets (8.30 EUR for category 1b) or purchase 4-trip tickets (“4er Ticket”, 10.40 EUR for category 1b).

Additional Information

Bonn's banks and savings banks (Sparkassen) offer services to meet all of your banking needs, including foreign currency transactions, securities business and customer investment advice. All banks are under state supervision. Banking hours are generally 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on workdays with a 1 ½ hour break for lunch. Most banks remain open until 6 p.m. on Mondays and Thursdays and close at 3 p.m. on Fridays. Most banks are closed on weekends. Automatic teller machines provide cash dispensing services to bank card holders 24 hours a day.

In most shops you will be able to pay with credit card and there are numerous cash machines throughout the town – including inside the UN building - where you can withdraw cash.

In case you have some spare time on your hands, you might want to go for a little sightseeing tour in Bonn. The city offers various interesting sights and events for tourists.

You can go on guided tours by bus, by bike, on foot or even by limousine. The following webpage gives detailed information what types of sightseeing tours are available: <http://www.bonn-region.de/english.html>

Bonn offers several arts museums, ranging from medieval to contemporary art and many galleries. If you are an arts lover, you should check the following webpage for more information on the Bonn arts scene: <http://www.bonn-region.de/overv/sights-culture.html>

When it comes to sports Bonn offers something for all tastes and ages, from a relaxing walk at the foot of the Siebengebirge (a famous range of hills to the East of the river) to a marathon run. http://www.bonn.de/tourismus_kultur_sport_freizeit/sport_in_bonn/index.html?lang=en

Shopping in Bonn: Practically the entire city centre is a pedestrian shopping centre. Between the railway station, the City Hall (Stadthaus), the Old Town Hall and Sterntor gate you can stroll from shop to shop, whether in large department stores, in clothing shops or in specialty shops of all kinds (fashion, high-tech, electronics, jewellery, sports equipment, delicatessen etc.). In the pedestrian zone and the shopping malls (Kaiserpassage, Cassius-Passage, Stern-Passage and Friedensplatz-Passage) you will find a shopping paradise, dotted with quaint peaceful squares with many cafés and restaurants. You will also find nice and varied shopping centres and pedestrian precincts in the other districts of Bonn (Bad Godesberg, Beuel, Hardtberg).

Opening hours of shops differ, but are roughly from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Outside the city centre, smaller shops may only be open in the mornings on Saturdays.
